ABOUT ABI F JONES

Abi F Jones has already started to make her mark on the music industry. From her Surrey roots, she has managed to hit the top twenty in Norway and had a cut on a major Coca Cola advert. Working with the industry respected DWB Music family; she has become a creative songwriter and flourishing artist. Always looking up to her opera singing mother and multi-instrumentalist father, music is all she has ever known. Writing her own material since she was just ten years old she cites strong female power houses Aretha Franklin, Etta James, Cristina Aguilera, Alicia Keys and Beyonce as her inspirations.

Growing up hearing everything from The Beach Boys to Madame Butterfly, her influences are reflected in her songwriting. Creating positive, diverse and uplifting melodies, her catchy and memorable lyrics leave a light hearted and empowered blueprint. Busy working hard in the studio with planned collaborations on the way with some of the UK's newest breaking artists, Abi F Jones is serious about her craft. With big dreams and emotional drive, writing and performing is where her heart lies. For her, music runs deep and with the backing of her band she is here to let the world know about it.
